

'Show' Trial Promised

Special to The New York Times.

JERUSALEM (Israeli Sector),

May 27—Premier Ben-Gurion has promised a "show" trial for Eichmann to give the world the whole story of the Nazi attempt to exterminate European Jews.

In a letter to Israel Galili, a member of the Knesset (Parliament), the Premier said "world public opinion should learn the truth." A passage from the letter was published in today's editions of Davar, the newspaper of Histadrut, Israel's general labor federation.

The Premier wrote:

"The facts should be known and remembered by the youth of Israel, who have grown up and received their education after the holocaust and only a faint echo of that atrocious crime, unparalleled in history, has reached their ears."

Mr. Ben-Gurion also wrote that the trial would inform the world that Arabs who plot the destruction of Israel are disciples of the Nazis.

Some Secrecy Expected

In spite of Mr. Ben-Gurion's letter not many persons here expect that all of the trial will be open to the press and public. There are too many aspects of the case that the Israeli Government and perhaps others will want kept secret.

It would be embarrassing to the country in which Eichmann was captured to have it known that its people can be smuggled out by Israeli agents with or without its consent or cooperation.

It will be painful for the Israelis if it turns out that Eichmann's wife and three sons were murdered to prevent their revealing the country in which Eichmann was captured.

The Israeli Government disclosed yesterday that Frau Eichmann, the former Vera Liebl, and at least one of their three sons had been living together when Eichmann was abducted. The sons are Horst, 24 years old; Dieter, 21, and Klaus 19.
