

On Sunday November 9, the Voice/Vision Archive, along with the Mardigian Library, will co-sponsor a talk by Glenn Kurtz, author of Three Minutes in Poland: Discovering a Lost World in a 1938 Family Film, as part of the 63rd Annual Jewish Community Center of Metropolitan Detroit's Book Fair.

Kurtz's book tells the story of his grandfather, who traveling in Europe in 1938, captured 3 minutes of ordinary life in the small, predominantly Jewish town of Nasielsk, Poland. More than 70 years later, these few minutes become a memorial to an entire community annihilated in the Holocaust. For Marcy Rosen, the film clip was also a visual record of her grandfather as a young boy living in Nasielsk prior to the war:

For Voice/Vision, supporting Mr. Kurtz's talk is especially important because the archive's founder, Sid Bolkosky, interviewed Marcy's grandfather, Maurice Chandler, for the archive in 1993:

We were also excited to give Mr. Kurtz permission to use excerpts from the interview in his book:

The talk will be held at 1 p.m. at the Jewish Community Center located at 6600 W. Maple Rd. West Bloomfield, MI 48322.

The talk is free and open to the public.

In addition to Kurtz's presentation, the archive and library are also sponsoring talks by Barbara Winton, author of If It's Not Impossible...The Life of Sir Nicholas Winton on Wednesday, November 12 at 6:00 p.m.($12.00 ticket fee.) and Souad Mekhennet author of The Eternal Nazi: From Mauthausen to Cairo, the Relentless Pursuit of SS Doctor Aribert Heim on Thursday, November 13 at 3:00 p.m.
